

A Warm Welcome to the Trauma Practice Research Project

Welcome to the Trauma Practice Research Project! Thank you for agreeing to take part in this research initiative looking at the experiences of clients who undergo the Trauma Practice therapy model. You should have already received a package with all of the materials you need to conduct the study with your client(s). This Google Drive gives you access to electronic copies of those documents. If you have any questions about the Google Drive, your study package, or the study in general, please contact one of the study Research Assistants.

The Contents of your Package and this Google Drive include:

- All Measures, important forms, and checklists
- The Study schedule
- All important contact information
- Scripts to guide you on how to recruit clients

Eligible Participants:

- Licensed Mental Health Providers with a minimum of a Master's
- Private Practice or organizational client services
- Experience with treatment of trauma
- Trained in the Trauma Practice approach, or willing to be trained at no charge

Requirements:

- Willing to provide clients with a series of tests/instruments to complete
- Follow the Trauma Practice methodology
- Prepared to follow the Research method set out for the purposes of this study

Benefits:

- Free retraining - the TI-204 Trauma Practice approach
- Guidance through use of the instruments
- Access to all tests/measures
- Monthly supervision meetings throughout the duration of study participation
- Support from the research team
- Free access and host account through <http://www.careline1.com> for the duration of the study
- Free online annual membership to the Trauma Treatment Online program <http://www.whatisptsd.com/trauma-care-online>

Thank you again for your enthusiastic participation in the Trauma Practice Research Project! We are looking forward to working with you!

Warm Regards,

The Trauma Practice Research Team